civilizations lacks historical writing distracts us from a more pertinent question how to recognize the historical sense of societies whose past is recorded in ways very different from european conventions romila thapar a distinguished scholar of ancient india guides us through a panoramic survey of the historical traditions of north india revealing a deep and sophisticated consciousness of history embedded in the diverse body of classical indian literature the history recorded in such texts as the ramayana and the mahabharata is less concerned with authenticating persons and events than
