1994-06 in this ground breaking study hsiao ting lin demonstrates that the chinese frontier was the subject neither of concerted aggression on the part of a centralized and indoctrinated chinese government nor of an ideologically driven nationalist ethnopolitics instead nationalist sovereignty over tibet and other border regions was the result of rhetorical grandstanding by chiang kai shek and his regime tibet and nationalist china s frontier makes a crucial contribution to the understanding of past and present china tibet relations a counterpoint to erroneous historical assumptions this book will change the way tibetologists and modern chinese historians frame future studies of the region

Cycle World Magazine 1997-01

Cycle World Magazine 2019-02-18 this book traces the social and political history of the muslims of south india from the later nineteenth century to independence in 1947 and the contours that followed it describes a community in search of political survival amidst an ever changing climate and the fluctuating fortunes it had in dealing with the rise of indian nationalism the local political nuances of that rise and its own changing position as part of the wider muslim community in india the book argues that partition and the foundation of pakistan in 1947 were neither the goal nor the necessarily inescapable result of the growth of communal politics and sentiment and analyses the post 1947 constructions of events leading to partition neither the fact of muslim communalism per se before 1947 nor the existence of separate muslim electorates provide an explanation for pakistan the book advances the theory that micro level studies of the operation of the former and the defence of the latter in british india can lead to a better understanding of the origins of communalism the book makes an important contribution to understanding and dealing with the complexities of communalism be it hindu muslim or christian and its often tragic consequences
